

Budget for relationship ministries

Base: all churches

N/A*: Sample size too small for analysis (n<20)

- Looking at all churches, a large majority are not putting funds toward relationship ministries. From this perspective pre-marital couples ministries are the most likely to receive funds (34% have some budget) and married couples drops to the second most funded (15% have some budget).

Question 3: For each type of ministry, please indicate approximately what proportion of the church's budget is allocated towards this ministry, please include all expenses to support this ministry, including a leader's salary if applicable. ("don't know" responses removed)
