Leave a Legacy

BUILDING A VISION STATEMENT

As we reflect on the 250th anniversary of America, think about the core values that make our country great. Every person is endowed with unalienable rights such as life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. This embodies the American Dream that aims for a society where all individuals have equal opportunity to thrive, regardless of background or circumstances. What are the core values you share with each other? What do you hope others see in you? What legacy do you hope to leave?

For this exercise, craft a personal or family vision statement that you can use to guide your daily actions and build your legacy. Keep it clear, repeatable, and inspiring so that it becomes a "north star" for aspirations and decision-making.
